TENANT RIGHTS

You have the right to consult an attorney. If you cannot afford one, free or reduced-fee legal assistance may be available through legal aid in Texas. You may have defenses to eviction including improper notice, retaliation, discrimination, breach of warranty of habitability, or rent already paid. Asserting these defenses requires timely action — do not delay.

You also have the right to a court hearing before being removed from the premises. The Landlord cannot lawfully change locks, shut off utilities, remove your belongings, or otherwise force you out without a court order. Self-help eviction is illegal in Texas.
