RECORDING INFORMATION

After execution, this Quitclaim Deed should be recorded at the appropriate Ohio county office:

County Recorder; Conveyance Fee ($1/$1,000 state + county additions up to $3/$1,000).

Recording fees vary by county. Verify current rates with the county office before submission.

DISCLAIMER: A quitclaim deed transfers only the grantor's interest (if any) without warranties. This is appropriate for transfers between family members, divorce settlements, or clearing title issues — NOT typically for arm's-length sales. For any conveyance involving valuable consideration to an unrelated party, a Warranty Deed is generally preferable. Have a Ohio-licensed real estate attorney review before execution.
